17th IUFoST World Congress
Food Safety Without Borders
Graduate Paper Competition
Food Safety Without Borders
Graduate Paper Competition

In keeping with IUFoST’s Vision to Strengthen Global Food Science and Technology for Humanity, the paper must address in a marketable way a food safety issue arising from an indigenous food from the student’s home country or region with the objective of enhancing global food safety.
Determination of imperative parameters to enhance the food safety and quality of Indonesian indigenous sugar (Arenga pinnata Merr)

WINNER, Food Safety Without Borders Graduate Paper
Irrigation water as a source of antibiotic resistance and pathogenic E. coli on irrigated lettuce

Matthew Aijuka - South Africa

1st Runner Up – Food Safety Without Borders Graduate Paper

Irrigation water as a source of antibiotic resistance and pathogenic E. coli on irrigated lettuce
Development of real-time PCR combined with immunomagnetic separation (IMS) for the detection of low concentrations and sanitizer-injured Salmonella spp. on mung bean sprouts
Identification of Hazards and Critical Control Points for Mosa (an indigenous maize based street vended snack) Processing in South-West Nigeria